CEO: N. Starr

Our newly appointed Chairperson comes with extensive governance experience including that which was gained in his previous role as Chairperson of the MICT SETA. Mr Ngubane also embodies a commitment to social impact and excellence in public service that resonates with our mandate. At this time of exponential technological advancement and digital transformation, we are honoured to be led by Mr Ngubane who has earned significant recognition in the ICT and Engineering sectors and is well-known for his dedication to business excellence, thought leadership and diversity within these sectors. We look forward to working with Mr Ngubane as we continue to Empower Influence and Inspire.

I am confident that our new Board, full of dynamic and experienced individuals who share the INSETA values of partnership, respect and transparency, will advocate relentlessly in our fight against poverty, unemployment and lack of access. If we were not already a force to be reckoned with, we are now!

Please therefore join the INSETA family in welcoming our new Chairperson and Board members as they step into their oversight roles and lead our insurance and related services skills development strategy for the next five years.

Yours in Skills

Ms Nadia Starr
Chief Executive Officer
